A Corporate Service of Penitence
(suitable for a diocesan, deanery or parish occasion)

Notes

1 Occasion
This Order may be adapted for use on a diocesan, deanery or parish occasion. It may be used as part of the observance of the penitential seasons of Advent and Lent or when Christian communities wish to respond to the call of the gospel to a deeper repentance, possibly as an expression of a desire for renewal or as a preparation for particular celebrations. A Corporate Service of Penitence is not intended for use as part of the Church’s response to local, national or international events which call for penitence. Where it is desired to use material from this Order in respect of local events, the bishop’s direction should be followed in the construction of an appropriate service in accordance with Canon B 4.3.

2 The President
The president of the rite is the bishop, or a priest, who presides over the whole rite.

3 Preparation
Careful preparation, both corporately and individually, according to the circumstances, is needed before this service.

4 Holy Communion
When this Order is used within the setting of a celebration of Holy Communion, the Peace follows the Absolution, followed by the Preparation of the Gifts and the Eucharistic Prayer. For Introductions to the Peace, a Prayer at the Preparation of the Table, Sentences, Short Prefaces, and an Extended Preface, see pages 240 and 261–262.

5 Readings
A table of suitable readings is provided on page 256. Other readings may be used where appropriate.

6 Individual Penitence
Where appropriate, an explicit link may be made between corporate penitence and the reconciliation of individual penitents. In some communities, provision for individual confession and absolution will be the natural pastoral outworking of such corporate services. The ministries of reconciliation and healing may take place either within the formal order, or at the conclusion, or on some other occasion, as numbers and pastoral circumstances dictate.

7 The Ministry of Personal Prayer
Provision is made within the rite for a ministry of prayer to individuals before the general absolution, where such a ministry has been introduced under the procedures required by Canon B 3. Such personal prayer may be accompanied by the laying on of hands, and may also be accompanied by anointing with the oil of healing (by the president or other ministers authorized for this ministry under Canon B 37). The provisions of Prayer for Individuals in Public Worship (pages 264–265) should be followed.

8 Oil
Canon B 37 provides that when anointing the priest should use ‘pure olive oil consecrated by the bishop of the diocese or otherwise by the priest himself’ and that the anointing should be made on the forehead with the sign of the cross. It may also be appropriate to anoint the hands. The oil used in this service may be oil previously consecrated by the bishop of the diocese or the priest, or it may be consecrated during the service by the bishop or priest who presides. A suitable authorized form of Prayer over the Oil is the short form:

A Short Form of Prayer over the Oil
Lord, holy Father, giver of health and salvation, as your apostles anointed those who were sick and healed them, so continue the ministry of healing in your Church. Sanctify this oil, that those who are anointed with it may be freed from suffering and distress, find inward peace, and know the joy of your salvation, through your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

A Corporate Service of Penitence
(suitable for a diocesan, deanery or parish occasion)

The Gathering

At the entrance of the ministers, a hymn may be sung.

The Greeting

The president greets the people using these or other suitable words

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All
and also with you.

The president may introduce the service.

A minister says

Hear the words of comfort our Saviour Christ says to all who truly turn to him:

Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11.28

God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish
but have eternal life.

John 3.16

Hear what Saint Paul says:
This saying is true, and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

1 Timothy 1.15

Hear what Saint John says:
If anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father,
Jesus Christ the righteous;
and he is the propitiation for our sins.

1 John 2.1,2
The Liturgy of the Word

If this service takes place on a Sunday, Principal Feast, Principal Holy Day or Festival, the readings of the day are normally used. For other occasions a table of readings is provided on page 256.

Either one or two readings from Scripture precede the Gospel reading. At the end of each, the reader may say

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

The psalm or canticle follows the first reading, and other hymns and songs may be used between the readings.

Gospel Reading

An acclamation may herald the Gospel reading.

When the Gospel is announced the reader says

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to N.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon
Prayers of Penitence

The prayers may be introduced by biddings arising from local circumstances. The following may be used (see pages 241–253):

- The Beatitudes
- or An Extended Form of Penitence based on the Beatitudes
- The Ten Commandments
- The Summary of the Law
- A Litany of Penitence
- A Biblical Reflection on Penitence
- Veni, Creator Spiritus
- A penitential hymn or song or other forms may be used.

A period of silence is kept.

Father eternal, giver of light and grace,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour,
in what we have thought,
in what we have said and done,
through ignorance, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We have wounded your love,
and marred your image in us.
We are sorry and ashamed, and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us,
forgive us all that is past;
and lead us out from darkness to walk as children of light.
Amen.

Where appropriate, a ministry of prayer may be offered for individuals, and the laying on of hands and/or anointing with the oil of healing may be administered (see Notes 7–8, page 229). During this ministry suitable hymns or songs may be sung.

Absolution

The president says the Absolution, using this or any other authorized form

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
who in his great mercy
has promised forgiveness of sins
to all those who with heartfelt repentance and true faith
turn to him:
have mercy on you;
pardon and deliver you from all your sins;
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness;
and bring you to everlasting life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Unless the Liturgy of the Sacrament follows immediately,
the president introduces the Lord’s Prayer (see page 260)

Rejoicing in the forgiveness of sins,
as our Saviour taught us, so we pray

Our Father in heaven,…
(or)

Rejoicing in the forgiveness of sins,
let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us

Our Father, who art in heaven,…

If the Liturgy of the Sacrament follows, the president continues with the Peace (see Note 4 on page 228).

A hymn or song of thanksgiving may be sung.
The Sending Out

Either the Thanksgiving for Holy Baptism or the Proclamation of the Gospel follows.

Thanksgiving for Holy Baptism

The congregation may go in procession to the font.
The president may say this prayer of thanksgiving and water may be poured into the font.

God in Christ gives us water welling up for eternal life.
With joy you draw water from the wells of salvation.

All Lord, give us this water and we shall thirst no more.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, sovereign God of all,
to you be glory and praise for ever.
You are our light and our salvation.
From the deep waters of death
you have raised your Son to life in triumph.
Grant that all who have been born anew by water and the Spirit, may daily be renewed in your image,
walk by the light of faith,
and serve you in newness of life;
through your anointed Son, Jesus Christ, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit
we lift our voices of praise.
Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All Blessed be God for ever.

The president may say

Almighty God,
in our baptism you have consecrated us to be temples of your Holy Spirit.
May we, whom you have counted worthy, nurture this gift of your indwelling Spirit with a lively faith and worship you with upright lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Water may be sprinkled over the people or they may be invited to use it to sign themselves with the cross.

Proclamation of the Gospel

(If the Thanksgiving for Holy Baptism has been used, the Proclamation of the Gospel is omitted.)

The president may say

God who said: ‘Let light shine out of darkness’

All has caused his light to shine within us
to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God

All revealed in the face of Jesus Christ.
We have this treasure in earthen vessels

All to show that the power belongs to God.

A minister says

Hear the words of the Gospel according to N.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

A short passage from the Gospels is read (suggested passages are given on page 256).

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.
The Peace

If Holy Communion has not been celebrated, the president says

Christ is our peace.
He has reconciled us to God
in one body by the cross.
We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
All also with you.

The Blessing

If Holy Communion has been celebrated, the president says this or another suitable blessing in place of the Peace

May God, who in Christ gives us a spring of water welling up to eternal life, perfect in you the image of his glory;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

The Dismissal

A minister says

Go in peace.
Mend what is broken;
unite what is divided;
live the gospel.

All In the name of Christ. Amen.

*A sign of peace may be exchanged.

The ministers and people depart.*

Sentences

These sentences of Scripture may be used as part of the Gathering or the Dismissal. At celebrations of Holy Communion, they may also be used at the Preparation of the Table.

Alleluia. The Lord heals the brokenhearted and binds up all their wounds. \[Psalm 147.1,3\]

Surely the Lord has borne our infirmities and carried away our sorrows. \[Isaiah 53.4\]

When you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. \[Matthew 5.23,24\]

God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. \[2 Corinthians 5.19\]

A harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace. \[James 3.18\]

Confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. \[James 5.16\]

Opening Prayer

God of unbounded grace, you declare the power of your reconciling love in the death and resurrection of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Teach us, who live only in your forgiveness, to forgive one another; heal our divisions and cast out our fears; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Beatitudes

Let us hear our Lord’s blessing on those who follow him.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

Blessed are those who suffer persecution for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.’
We have looked on our neighbour’s faults and weaknesses with a hard and intolerant eye.
We have failed to show understanding and sympathy, but judged harshly and too soon.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.’
We have been suspicious, distrustful and insincere in the thoughts of our hearts.
We have spoiled the joy and beauty of our senses and our love through lust and self-indulgence.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God.’
We have broken the loving peace of friends and families with quarrelling and selfishness.
We have disturbed the peace of our land with violence and civil strife.
We have filled the world with wars and the fear of war.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are those who suffer persecution for the sake of justice, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.’
We have neglected in our prayers and in our charity those who are persecuted for their faith, their beliefs, or their race.
We have encouraged or left unrebuked those who, in word or deed, deny the equality of the children of God.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.’
We have been proud and overbearing.
We have asserted our own importance and been jealous of others.
We have despised the weak and slandered those we envy and dislike.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.’
We have been angry in our hearts and in our words.
We have returned evil for evil.
We have done violence ourselves and condoned the violence of others.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are those who weep, for they shall be consoled.’
We have not borne our own sorrow and suffering with the patience which comes from faith.
We have failed to show compassion and care for others who suffer.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, ‘Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after justice, for they shall be satisfied.’
We have cared little for the injustice, inequality and poverty around us.
We have hungered and thirsted for our own comfort and safety, and turned away from the injustice done to others.
Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.
The Ten Commandments

Hear the commandments which God has given to his people, and examine your hearts.

I am the Lord your God: you shall have no other gods but me.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not make for yourself any idol.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not dishonour the name of the Lord your God.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not commit murder.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not commit adultery.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not steal.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not covet anything which belongs to your neighbour.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy upon us and write all these your laws in our hearts.

(or)

Hear these commandments which God has given to his people, and examine your hearts.

I am the Lord your God: you shall have no other gods but me.
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not make for yourself any idol.
God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not dishonour the name of the Lord your God.
You shall worship him with awe and reverence.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy.
Christ is risen from the dead: set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on the earth.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

Honour your father and mother.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

Live as servants of God; let us work for the good of all, especially members of the household of faith.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not commit murder.
Live peaceably with all; overcome evil with good.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not commit adultery.
Know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not steal.
Be honest in all that you do, and care for those in need.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.
Let everyone speak the truth.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.

You shall not covet anything which belongs to your neighbour.
Remember the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’
Love your neighbour as yourself, for love is the fulfilling of the law.
All Amen. Lord, have mercy.
Summary of the Law

This may be used with or without the congregational response.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:
The first commandment is this:
‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind,
and with all your strength.’

The second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’
There is no other commandment greater than these.
On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

All  Amen. Lord, have mercy.

A Litany of Penitence

The minister may make a selection from the following petitions.
Other suitable responses may be used.

Christ our Saviour is our advocate with the Father:
with humble hearts let us ask him to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from every stain.

You were sent with good news for the poor and healing for the contrite.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You came to call sinners, not the righteous.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You forgave the many sins of the woman who showed you great love.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You did not shun the company of outcasts and sinners.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You carried back to the fold the sheep that had strayed.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You did not condemn the woman taken in adultery, but said, ‘Go and sin no more.’

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You called Zacchaeus to repentance and a new life.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You promised Paradise to the repentant thief.

All  Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

You are always interceding for us at the right hand of the Father.

A Biblical Reflection on Penitence

The minister may make a selection from the following verses. Other suitable responses may be used.

We were reconciled to God by your death, Lord Jesus, and will be saved by your risen life.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Romans 5.10

You died and were raised and sit at the right hand of God, to make intercession for us.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Romans 8.34

You became for us wisdom from God, and our righteousness, sanctification and redemption.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Corinthians 1.30

You washed us, you sanctified us, you justified us, in your name and in the Spirit of our God.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Corinthians 6.11

When we sin against members of your family, we sin against you.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Corinthians 8.12

Though you were rich, yet for our sakes you became poor, so that by your poverty we might become rich.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 2 Corinthians 8.9

You gave yourself for our sins to set us free from the present evil age.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Galatians 1.4

You rose from the dead to rescue us from the wrath that is coming.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Thessalonians 1.10

You came into the world to save sinners.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Timothy 1.15

You gave yourself as a ransom for all.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Timothy 2.6

You abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 2 Timothy 1.10

You will appear to judge the living and the dead.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 2 Timothy 4.1

You have appeared, the grace of God for the salvation of all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Titus 2.11,12

You gave yourself for us to redeem us all from iniquity and to purify a people for your own who are zealous for good deeds.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Titus 2.14

You are a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Hebrews 2.17

You became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey you.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Hebrews 5.9

Through the eternal Spirit you offered yourself without blemish to God, to purify our conscience from dead works.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Hebrews 9.14

You were offered once to bear the sins of many.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Hebrews 9.28
You suffered for sins once and for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring us to God.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 Peter 3.18

You are the atoning sacrifice for our sins and the sins of the whole world.

All Lord, have mercy. cf 1 John 2.2

You came as Son of Man to seek out and save the lost.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Luke 19.10

You were given by the Father so that everyone who believes in you may not perish but may have eternal life.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 3.16

You were sent not to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 3.17

You have authority on earth to forgive sins.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Mark 2.10

You invite all who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens to come to you for rest.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Matthew 11.28

You gave your apostles the keys of the kingdom of heaven, the power to loose and to bind.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Matthew 16.19;18.18

You commanded us to love the Lord our God with all our heart and soul and mind, and to love our neighbour as ourself.

All Lord, have mercy. cf Matthew 22.37-39

Bread of life, you gave your flesh for the life of the world.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 6.48,51

Light of the world, whoever follows you will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 14.6

Good Shepherd, you came that we may have life and have it abundantly.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 10.10,11

The resurrection and the life, you promise that those who believe in you, though they die, will live.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 11.25

The way, the truth and the life, you bring us to the Father.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 14.16

True vine, your Father prunes every branch that bears fruit to make it bear even more fruit.

All Lord, have mercy. cf John 15.1,2

You have authority on earth to forgive sins.

You invite all who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens to come to you for rest.

You gave your apostles the keys of the kingdom of heaven, the power to loose and to bind.

You commanded us to love the Lord our God with all our heart and soul and mind, and to love our neighbour as ourself.
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire;
thou the anointing Spirit art,
who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above is comfort, life and fire of love; enable with perpetual light
the dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face with the abundance of thy grace;
keep far our foes, give peace at home;
where thou art guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
and thee, of Both, to be but One;
that through the ages all along,
this may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

John Cosin

(or)

Creator Spirit, Lord of grace,
come, make in us your dwelling place;
O purest Light, in darkness shine;
fill loveless hearts, O Love Divine.

Consoler, hear your people’s cry;
come down, O Gift of God, Most High.
Descend in peace, O heav’nly Dove;
come Fount of Life; come Flame of Love.

As once on Christ the Servant’s head the oil of sevenfold grace you shed, so now anoint from love’s deep springs your chosen prophets, priests and kings.

Of ev’ry gift the living source,
of mighty deeds the unseen force,
the Father sends his promised One to speak for all who serve his Son.

Keep far all those who wish us ill,
O Dove of Peace, be with us still,
in ev’ry danger at our side
O Friend, befriend us; be our guide.

Reveal to us the Father’s love, reveal his Son, who reigns above.
To truth, O Truth, make us all true;
in love, O Love, make all things new.
Amen.

(Tune: LM)
Invitations to Confession

1
God shows his love for us in this: while we were still sinners Christ died for us. Sure of the reconciliation through the death of his Son, we confess our sins to God.

2
Christ himself bore our sins in his body on the cross so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds we have been healed. Let us confess our sins.

Let us confess to God the sins and shortcomings of the world; its pride, its selfishness, its greed; its evil divisions and hatreds. Let us confess our share in what is wrong, and our failure to seek and establish the peace which God wills for his children.

Kyrie Confessions

Note
The following Kyrie Confessions are not intended for major services of penitence or reconciliation; at these a fuller form of penitence should be used. They are provided for use at, for example, weekday celebrations of the Holy Communion during penitential seasons or occasions such as the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity or One World Week when reconciliation may be a particular intention of the liturgy.

Lord Jesus, you came to reconcile us to one another and to the Father: Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you heal the wounds of sin and division: Christ, have mercy.
All Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you intercede for us with your Father: Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you came into the world to save sinners: Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Our sin has brought sorrow and hurt to you, to others and to ourselves: Christ, have mercy.
All Christ, have mercy.

Forgive what we have been, amend what we are, and direct what we shall be. Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

You came to heal and to restore. Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

You came to bring pardon and peace. Christ, have mercy.
All Christ, have mercy.

You live to intercede for us at the right hand of the Father. Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

A Form of Intercession

Eternal God, your Son is King and Head of the Church. We pray for your people across the world, that what is divided by doctrine or race, by class or creed, may be united in your name.

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Eternal God, your Son is Ruler of nations. We pray for those in authority, that those who lead us may work for peace and reconciliation, that by your wisdom and their vision the world may reflect your kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Eternal God, your Son is the Prince of peace. We pray for a peaceful world, where children grow up without fear, and security rests on trust rather than threats, and where nations fight against poverty rather than against each other.

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Eternal God, your Son is the healer of our sickness. We pray for those who are ill or who are passing through times of testing, that they may know the power of Christ to sustain them.

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Eternal God, your Son is the Resurrection and the Life. Confirm our faith in the communion of saints, that, inspired by all who have gone before us in faith, we may seek the things which are above, where Christ reigns, and live on earth the life of heaven.

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself: help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.
The Lord's Prayer

Rejoicing in the forgiveness of sins,
as our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

(or)

Rejoicing in the forgiveness of sins,
let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Introductions to the Peace

Christ is our peace.
He has reconciled us to God
in one body by the cross.
We meet in his name and share his peace.

Blessed are the peacemakers:
they shall be called children of God.
We meet in the name of Christ and share his peace.

Blessed be Christ the Prince of peace.
He breaks down the walls that divide us:
praise Christ who is our peace.

The Lord keeps in perfect peace those who trust in him.
In returning and rest you shall be saved,
in quietness and trust shall be your strength.

Prayer at the Preparation of the Table

Gather up, O Lord, the broken fragments of our humanity, that in your wounded hands we might find our healing.

All
Blessed be God for ever.
Short Prefaces

And now we give you thanks
because in his victory over the grave a new age has dawned, the long reign of sin is ended,
a broken world is being renewed and humanity is once again made whole.

And now we give you thanks
because you provide medicine to heal our sickness, and the leaves of the tree of life for the healing of the nations, anointing us with your healing power
so that we may be the first fruits of your new creation.

Extended Preface

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, we praise and thank you through Jesus Christ our Lord for your presence and action in the world.
In the midst of conflict and division
you turn our minds to thoughts of peace.
Your Spirit changes our hearts:
enemies find reconciliation,
those who were estranged stretch out their hands in friendship,
and nations forsake war to walk the paths of peace.
Your Spirit breathes upon our world
when understanding puts an end to strife, when hatred is quenched with mercy and vengeance gives way to forgiveness.
And so we worship and adore you and join the choirs of heaven
as they sing for ever the song of your glory:

Acclamation

I saw water flowing from the threshold of the temple.

All
Wherever the river flows everything will spring to life. Alleluia.

On the banks of the river grow trees bearing every kind of fruit.

All
Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail.

Their fruit will serve for food,
their leaves for the healing of the nations.

All
For the river of the water of life flows from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

Blessings

May Christ,
who out of defeat brings new hope and a new future,
fill you with his new life;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.

2
May God,
who in Christ has reconciled all things in heaven and earth,
grant you grace to walk the path of forgiveness;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.

Ending

God has enlisted you in the ministry of reconciliation:
go in his peace.

All
Thanks be to God.
Prayer for Individuals in Public Worship

1 A ministry of prayer for individuals may be offered in the context of public worship and should be introduced under the procedures required by Canon B 3. Suitable forms of prayer, including any approved under Canon B 4, may be used.

2 This public ministry of prayer may be accompanied by laying on of hands, and may also be accompanied by anointing with oil. It may be helpful to make clear in advance the form of ministry that is intended, which may take a number of forms, such as prayer for individuals who do not explain their particular need; prayer following a brief explanation to those who will pray with them of a person’s need or concern; or prayer following an explanation to the whole congregation of a person’s need or concern. (The Laying on of Hands may be received on behalf of a third person who is not present.)

3 Those who will be ministering to individuals should be offered appropriate help in preparing for this ministry. Before the service it is normally appropriate for them to pray together for grace and discernment.

4 In the context of a celebration of Holy Communion this personal ministry may be offered at one of the following points:
   ¶ as part of the Prayers of Intercession (which may, where appropriate, include prayers of penitence)
   ¶ at the time of the giving of communion ¶ at the end of the service.

5 The Order of the Celebration of Holy Communion may be varied as follows:
   ¶ the Prayers of Penitence may be replaced by other suitable material
   ¶ on occasion the Creed may be omitted or an authorized Affirmation of Faith may be used ¶ when ministry to individuals is incorporated into the Prayers of Intercession, psalms of lament or hope or other appropriate material may be used as a form of introduction to such prayer.

6 Whichever pattern is adopted, care needs to be taken to integrate ministry to individuals with the corporate prayer of the whole people. Where ministry to individuals takes place during or after the distribution of communion it is important that the gift and promise of communion is not overshadowed by prayer for individual needs. In places where ministry to individuals during or after the distribution of communion is a regular pattern, it may sometimes be helpful to focus such prayer by including prayer for them earlier in the service and on occasion to change the pattern to include this ministry earlier in the service.
The Reconciliation of a Penitent

Introductory Note
These orders may be appropriately used when a person’s conscience is burdened with a particular sin, when a person wishes to make a new beginning in the Christian life, or as part of a regular personal discipline.

The Book of Common Prayer includes the following pastoral exhortation: ‘... if there be any of you, who by this means [self-examination, confession and repentance] cannot quiet his own conscience herein, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other discreet and learned Minister of God's Word, and open his grief, that by the ministry of God's holy Word he may receive the benefit of absolution, together with ghostly counsel and advice, to the quieting of his conscience, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulness.’

The aim of such a ministry of comfort and counsel is to establish an individual in the freedom and forgiveness of Christ. It can be exercised in a variety of ways at the discretion of the minister. The provision of these two orders is not intended to limit such discretion.

The reconciliation of a penitent, even when celebrated privately, remains a corporate action of the Church, because sin affects the unity of the body; through the absolution the penitent is restored to full fellowship in Christ. Two forms of the rite are provided. The first form is more simple, and follows the traditional pattern of the western Church. The second form is an individual renewal of the baptismal covenant and may be used in situations where someone has been separated from the Church's fellowship because of sin or personal circumstances.

Explanatory Guidelines

Preparation
The priest and penitent should prepare themselves carefully for this ministry. This includes both the desire for the illuminating presence of the Holy Spirit and the willingness to examine self in the light of God’s commandments and the example of Christ.

The Greeting
The priest welcomes the penitent warmly and gives any necessary explanatory help to enable the penitent to participate fully in the rite.

Readings
In Form 1, the priest uses one or more short readings to encourage the penitent to recognize his or her sins in the light of God's word and to have confidence in his mercy. The reading of verses from Psalm 51 enables priest and penitent to acknowledge their common sinfulness and need of God's forgiveness. Where appropriate, the penitent may be invited to read a passage from the Bible.

In Form 2, one of the responsories is used.

Confession and Counsel
The confession of sins may be made in the penitent’s own words, or using the forms provided with the optional insertion of particular named sins. The priest should give whatever help may be required to enable the penitent to articulate those sins for which absolution is desired. Such help will often be given before the liturgical rite is celebrated as part of an extended pastoral conversation; however, where circumstances dictate, this may take place within the rite. Sometimes, in the light of such counsel, particular issues may be clarified and motives examined; the role of the priest is to enable the penitent to make confession with integrity. This underlies the reference in the rubric to assisting the penitent ‘to complete’ his or her confession. The priest should seek to enable the penitent to recognize the reality of human frailty and God’s all-embracing mercy and grace.
In Form 2, as this rite is a conscious recalling of baptism, the penitent may make the sign of the cross with water in response to confession.

After confession, the priest may, with the goodwill of the penitent, offer counsel or advice.

The rubric referring to restitution is related to the desire for amendment of life. In some cases, a particular course of action will recommend itself – just as, in the Gospel tradition, Zacchaeus makes restitution to those he had defrauded (Luke 19.8). In other cases, this may be a willingness to seek practical reconciliation with others. This leads naturally into the Act of Contrition.

The priest may recommend some prayer or action as a sign of repentance, thanksgiving, and growth in discipleship. This may include Bible reading or other devotional reading, almsgiving, or the renewal of a personal rule of life. Prayer texts such as the Lord’s Prayer, the ‘Jesus Prayer’ or other well-known devotional prayers are often recommended. It should always be stressed that the role of such penances is to assist the penitent in walking in newness of life; it is not about ‘earning forgiveness’ or being ‘punished’.

In some circumstances and in some traditions of the Church, there may be a discernment that the ministry of personal prayer is a natural response to confession and counsel before absolution is pronounced. Such prayer ministry may be accompanied by the laying on of hands and/or anointing with the oil of healing. Where this ministry is unfamiliar to the penitent, care should be taken in explaining its function and form. While both forms of the rite suggest that such ministry precedes absolution, nevertheless, there may be circumstances, at the discretion of the priest, where it may follow the Absolution.

Act of Contrition

The act or prayer of contrition arises from the desire, as expressed in the Collect for Ash Wednesday, that God should create and make in us new and contrite hearts. The act of contrition expresses the desire and intention before God to turn away from sin and to walk in newness of life. The penitent may use his or her own words or the form provided.

Absolution

The priest lays hands on the penitent, or extends hands over the penitent. The priest may make the sign of the cross over the penitent, or on the penitent’s forehead, recalling the baptismal liturgy. The priest uses an authorized form of absolution.

Thanksgiving

The priest and penitent may make an act of thanksgiving, followed by a prayer which celebrates the reconciliation of the penitent to God and to the Church. The Lord’s Prayer may be said.

The Dismissal

The priest may bless the penitent before the formal dismissal.
Notes

1 Confidentiality

The ministry of reconciliation requires that what is said in confession to a priest may not be disclosed, as is set out more fully in the Guidelines for the Professional Conduct of the Clergy approved by the Convocations of Canterbury and York in 2003:

7 Call their hearers to repentance

In Christ’s name absolve, and declare forgiveness of sins

7.1 The ministry of reconciliation, as an extension of Jesus’ own ministry, lies at the heart of this vocation. It is to be exercised gently, patiently and undergirded by mutual trust.

7.2 There can be no disclosure of what is confessed to a priest. This principle holds even after the death of the penitent. The priest may not refer to what has been learnt in confession, even to the penitent, unless explicitly permitted. Some appropriate action of contrition and reparation may be required before absolution is given. A priest may withhold absolution.

7.3 Where abuse of children or vulnerable adults is admitted in the context of confession, the priest should urge the person to report his or her behaviour to the police or social services, and should also make this a condition of absolution, or withhold absolution until this evidence of repentance has been demonstrated.

7.4 If a penitent’s behaviour gravely threatens his or her well-being or that of others, the priest, while advising action on the penitent’s part, must still keep the confidence.

Note An appeal to the tradition of the Church demonstrates this understanding of the ‘seal of the confessional’ and the relevant provision in the Canons of 1604 (Canon 113) was left unreppealed by the Canons of 1969, which superseded the earlier Canons in almost every other respect. Whether the civil courts will always respect this principle of absolute confidentiality remains uncertain.

2 Training

Except in emergencies, this ministry should only be exercised after training. Any directions issued by the bishop should be followed.

3 Form 2

The service may take place at the font, which may be filled with water set apart for use in Holy Baptism. It is appropriate that those who seek to be reconciled to the Church through this rite should be encouraged in due course to make a public Affirmation of Baptismal Faith.

4 Pastoral Circumstances

In cases of pastoral necessity or emergency, only the confession, an expression of contrition and the absolution are mandatory. Other parts of the rite may be used by the penitent privately according to opportunity.

5 Confession and Counsel

As on many occasions the priest and penitent will have had an extended conversation before the actual liturgical rite, the amount of counsel given within the rite will probably be small.

6 Restitution and tokens of repentance

In giving advice to the penitent, the priest should encourage restitution where this is appropriate and may recommend some prayer or action as a token of repentance.

7 Ministry of Prayer, Laying on of Hands and Anointing

Before pronouncing absolution the priest may, where appropriate, offer the ministry of prayer which may be accompanied by the laying on of hands, and may also be accompanied by anointing with the oil of healing. Alternatively, the anointing may be administered after the Absolution. When anointing is administered, the following form of words is used:

‘N, I anoint you in the name of God who gives you life. Receive Christ’s forgiveness, his healing and his love. May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ grant you the riches of his grace, his wholeness and his peace.’
Oil

Canon B 37 provides that when anointing the priest should use ‘pure olive oil consecrated by the bishop of the diocese or otherwise by the priest himself’ and that the anointing should be made on the forehead with the sign of the cross. It may also be appropriate to anoint the hands.

A Short Form of Prayer over the Oil

Lord, holy Father, giver of health and salvation, as your apostles anointed those who were sick and healed them, so continue the ministry of healing in your Church. Sanctify this oil, that those who are anointed with it may be freed from suffering and distress, find inward peace, and know the joy of your salvation, through your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The priest may say

The Lord our God is gracious and merciful; he does not desire the death of sinners but rather that they should turn from their sins and live. He has given power and commandment to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his penitent people the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardons and absolves all those who truly repent and believe in his holy gospel. Let us therefore pray that he will grant you true repentance and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit.

(or)

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1.8,9

The priest and penitent say together

Have mercy on me, O God, in your great goodness; according to the abundance of your compassion blot out my offences.
Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness and cleanse me from my sin.
Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

Psalm 51.1,2,11

Other suitable verses from Scripture may be said

Matthew 6.14,15; Matthew 11.28; Mark 1.14,15; Luke 6.31-38; Luke 15.1-7; John 3.16; John 10.19-23; Romans 5.6-9; 8.1-2; Romans 8.38,39; Ephesians 5.1,2; Colossians 1.12-14; Colossians 3.8-10,12-17; 1 Timothy 1.15; 1 John 1.6,7,9; 2.1,2.
Confession and Counsel

The priest says

The Lord be in your heart and on your lips that you may truly and humbly confess your sins.

Confession

The penitent makes confession of sins in his or her own words, beginning

I confess to almighty God, before the whole company of heaven and before you …

or this form may be used

Almighty God,
long-suffering and of great goodness:
I confess to you,
I confess with my whole heart
my neglect and forgetfulness of your commandments,
my wrong doing, thinking, and speaking;
the hurts I have done to others,
and the good I have left undone.
In particular I confess [since my last confession in … /
in this my first confession] …
O God, for these, and all other sins that I cannot now remember,
I ask your forgiveness.
Forgive me, for I have sinned against you;
and raise me to newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The priest may give appropriate counsel or guidance and whatever help is necessary to enable the penitent to complete his or her confession.
The priest encourages the penitent to make restitution, and may recommend some prayer or action as a sign of repentance.
The priest may, where appropriate, offer the ministry of prayer (see Note 7, page 271).

Reconciliation

Act of Contrition

The penitent makes an act of contrition using these or similar words

My God, for love of you
I desire to hate and forsake all sins
by which I have ever displeased you;
and I resolve by the help of your grace
to commit them no more;
and to avoid all opportunities of sin.
Help me to do this,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Absolution

The priest lays hands on, or extends hands over, the penitent. The priest may make the sign of the cross over the penitent or on the penitent’s forehead. The priest pronounces an authorized Absolution (pages 288–289).
Thanksgiving

The priest and penitent may give thanks
Know that there is joy in heaven over each one who repents.
Give thanks to the Lord, for he is gracious, for his faithfulness endures for ever. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his mercy upon those who fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he set our sins from us. Psalm 106.1; 103.11,12

The priest may say
Merciful Lord, we thank you that you have delivered this your servant from the power of sin and restored him/her to your peace in the fellowship of your Church; strengthen him/her by your Spirit, that he/she may please you until he/she comes to the fullness of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God of grace and life, in your love you have given us a place among your people; keep us faithful to our baptism, and prepare us for that glorious day when the whole creation will be made perfect in your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

The priest and penitent may say the Lord’s Prayer.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

(or)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
The Dismissal

The priest may say a blessing

May Christ, who out of defeat brings new hope and a new future, fill you with his new life; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always.

Amen.

(or)

May God, who in Christ has reconciled all things in heaven and earth, grant you grace to walk the path of forgiveness; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always.

Amen.

The Dismissal

Priest

The Lord has put away your sins.

Penitent

Thanks be to God.

Priest

Go in peace, and pray for me, a sinner.

The Reconciliation of a Penitent: Form Two

(An Individual Renewal of the Baptismal Covenant after Sin)

The Gathering

The priest may say

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The priest welcomes the penitent and together in silence they prepare for the celebration of this ministry.

Readings

The priest says

All who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death. Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. Romans 6.3,4

A brief silence is kept. Then the priest and penitent say one of the following

The Lord is loving to everyone and his mercy is over all his creatures.
The Lord is near to those who call upon him, to all who call upon him faithfully.
He fulfils the desire of those who fear him; he hears their cry and saves them.

Psalm 145. 9,19,20
Confession

Now in the presence of Christ and of me, his minister, confess your sins with a humble and obedient heart to almighty God, our creator and redeemer.

The penitent makes confession of sins in his or her own words, beginning

I confess to almighty God, before the whole company of heaven and before you ...

or this form may be used

Holy God, heavenly Father, you formed me from the dust in your image and likeness, and redeemed me from sin and death by the cross of your Son Jesus Christ. Through the water of baptism you clothed me with the shining garment of righteousness, and established me among your children in your kingdom. But I have squandered the inheritance of your saints and have wandered in a far country. Especially, I confess to you and before the Church ...

Therefore, O Lord, from these and all other sins I cannot remember, I turn in sorrow and repentance. Receive me again into the arms of your mercy, and restore me to the blessed company of your faithful people; through him in whom you have redeemed the world, your Son our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

The penitent may make the sign of the cross with water.

The priest may give appropriate counsel or guidance and whatever help is necessary to enable the penitent to complete his or her confession. The priest encourages the penitent to make restitution, and may recommend some prayer or action as a sign of repentance.

The priest may, where appropriate, offer the ministry of prayer (see Note 7, page 271).

Confession and Counsel

The priest says

At your baptism you repented of the sins that separate you from God and your neighbour, you were cleansed from your sins and born again, you were washed with the Holy Spirit and made clean. Do you desire once again to walk in newness of life by confession of your sins? I do.

Psalm 106.1; 103.11, 12

The Lord’s Prayer

The priest and penitent may say the Lord’s Prayer.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

(or)

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
The Dismissal

The priest may say a blessing

May Christ,
who out of defeat brings new hope and a new future,
fill you with his new life;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be upon you and remain with you always.

_Amen._

_(or)_

May God,
who in Christ has reconciled all things in heaven and earth,
grant you grace to walk the path of forgiveness;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be upon you and remain with you always.

_Amen._

A Form of Confession

suitable for use with individuals

Almighty God,
long-suffering and of great goodness:
I confess to you,
I confess with my whole heart
my neglect and forgetfulness of your commandments,
my wrong doing, thinking, and speaking;
the hurts I have done to others,
O God, forgive me, for I have sinned against you;
and raise me to newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

_Amen._

---

An Act of Contrition

suitable for use with individuals

My God, for love of you
I desire to hate and forsake all sins
by which I have ever displeased you;
and I resolve by the help of your grace
to commit them no more;
and to avoid all opportunities of sin.
Help me to do this,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

_Amen._

---

The Dismissal

Priest  The Lord has put away your sins.
Penitent  Thanks be to God.
Priest  Go in peace, and pray for me, a sinner.
Authorized Absolutions

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who has left power to his Church to absolve all sinners who truly repent and believe in him, of his great mercy forgive you your offences:
and by his authority committed to me,
I absolve you from all your sins,
in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

2
God, the Father of mercies, has reconciled the world to himself through the death and resurrection of his Son, Jesus Christ, not counting our trespasses against us,
but sending his Holy Spirit to shed abroad his love among us.
By the ministry of reconciliation entrusted by Christ to his Church, receive his pardon and peace to stand before him in his strength alone, this day and evermore.
Amen.

3 Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
who in his great mercy
has promised forgiveness of sins
to all those who with heartfelt repentance and true faith
turn to him:
have mercy on you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and bring you to everlasting life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

4
Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

5
The Lord enrich you with his grace, and nourish you with his blessing;
the Lord defend you in trouble and keep you from all evil;
the Lord accept your prayers,
and absolve you from your offences,
for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Saviour.
Amen.

6
The almighty and merciful Lord grant you pardon and forgiveness of all your sins, time for amendment of life,
and the grace and strength of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.
A Celebration of Wholeness and Healing

Introductory Note

This form of service is intended to recognize the links between prayer for healing and the wider celebration in the Church of reconciliation and renewal in the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is a service most suitable for a diocesan or deanery occasion.

Those who come for prayer with Laying on of Hands and/or Anointing should make careful preparation. They may receive the Laying on of Hands on behalf of others who are not present as well as for themselves.

Where prayer is offered for those who will minister to others, this should be seen as prayer for the grace and discernment of the Holy Spirit, as well as prayer for healing. All who minister to others in need should have careful regard for the duty of confidentiality which this privilege brings. As part of their preparation, those who minister need to be ready to recognize where specialist skills may be required.

If a need for a more particular ministry of exorcism or deliverance is perceived, then the bishop’s instructions should be followed and his authorized advisor consulted.

For a Theological Introduction to the services of Wholeness and Healing, see Common Worship: Pastoral Services, pages 9–11.

A Celebration of Wholeness and Healing

(especially suitable for a diocesan or deanery occasion)

The Collect

Silence may be kept.

Heavenly Father, you anointed your Son Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit and with power to bring to us the blessings of your kingdom. Anoint your Church with the same Holy Spirit, that we who share in his suffering and victory may bear witness to the gospel of salvation; through Jesus Christ, your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Gathering

At the entrance of the ministers, a hymn or chant may be sung.

The Greeting

The president greets the people using these or other suitable words

In the name of Christ, we welcome you.
We have been called out of darkness into God’s marvellous light.
Grace and peace be with you
All and also with you.

The president may introduce the service, using one of the forms on pages 304–305 or other suitable words.

This dialogue or another suitable form may be used

The love of God has been poured into our hearts, through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us: we dwell in him and he lives in us.

Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name:
All make known his deeds among the peoples.

Sing to God, sing praises to his name:
All and speak of all his marvellous works.

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God almighty:
All who was and is and is to come.
The Liturgy of the Word

Prayer and Penitence

As an introduction to this section, a minister may use one of the forms on pages 304–305, if it has not already been used at the beginning of the service.

Prayers of Intercession

At the Prayers of Intercession, the following Litany of Healing may be used. Additional petitions, including names, may be included.

God the Father, your will for all people is health and salvation.

All We praise and bless you, Lord.

God the Son, you came that we might have life, and might have it more abundantly.

All We praise and bless you, Lord.

God the Holy Spirit, you make our bodies the temple of your presence.

All We praise and bless you, Lord.

Holy Trinity, one God, in you we live and move and have our being.

All We praise and bless you, Lord.

Lord, grant your healing grace to all who are sick, injured or disabled, that they may be made whole.

All Hear us, Lord of life.

Grant to all who are lonely, anxious or depressed a knowledge of your will and an awareness of your presence.

All Hear us, Lord of life.

Grant to all who minister to those who are suffering wisdom and skill, sympathy and patience.

All Hear us, Lord of life.

Mend broken relationships, and restore to those in distress soundness of mind and serenity of spirit.

All Hear us, Lord of life.

Sustain and support those who seek your guidance and lift up all who are brought low by the trials of this life.

All Hear us, Lord of life.

Celebration of Wholeness and Healing

The Liturgy of the Word

If this celebration takes place on a Sunday or Principal Festival the readings of the day are normally used. For other occasions a table of readings is provided on pages 306–307.

Either one or two readings from Scripture precede the Gospel reading. At the end of each, the reader may say

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

The psalm or canticle follows the first reading, and other hymns and songs may be used between the readings.

Gospel Reading

An acclamation may herald the Gospel reading.

When the Gospel is announced, the reader says

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to N.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon
Grant to the dying peace and a holy death, and uphold by the grace and consolation of your Holy Spirit those who are bereaved.

All
_Hear us, Lord of life._

Restore to wholeness whatever is broken by human sin, in our lives, in our nation, and in the world.

All
_Hear us, Lord of life._

You are the Lord who does mighty wonders.

All
_You have declared your power among the peoples._

With you, Lord, is the well of life

All
_and in your light do we see light._

Hear us, Lord of life:

All
_heal us, and make us whole._

Let us pray.

_A period of silence follows._

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All
_Amen._

Prayers of Penitence

The gospel calls us to turn away from sin and be faithful to Christ. As we offer ourselves to him in penitence and faith, we renew our confidence and trust in his mercy.

Cast your burden upon the Lord

All
_and he will sustain you._

In returning and rest

All
_you shall be saved._

In quietness and trust

All
_shall be your strength._

There follows a period of silent reflection and self-examination.

Absolution

The president says the Absolution, using this or any other authorized form

God, the Father of mercies, has reconciled the world to himself through the death and resurrection of his Son, Jesus Christ, not holding our sins against us, but sending his Holy Spirit to shed abroad his love among us. By the ministry of reconciliation entrusted by Christ to his Church, receive his pardon and peace to stand before him in his strength alone this day and for evermore.

All
_Amen._

_A hymn or chant may be sung._
Laying on of Hands and Anointing

Oil for anointing is brought before the president.

Our help is in the name of the Lord who has made heaven and earth.

Blessed be the name of the Lord:
All now and for ever. Amen.

(or)

Praise God who made heaven and earth, who keeps his promise for ever.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God, who is worthy of all thanksgiving and praise.

Blessed are you, sovereign God, gentle and merciful, creator of heaven and earth.
Your Word brought light out of darkness, and daily your Spirit renews the face of the earth.

When we turned away from you in sin, your anointed Son took our nature and entered our suffering to bring your healing to those in weakness and distress. He broke the power of evil and set us free from sin and death that we might become partakers of his glory.

His apostles anointed the sick in your name, bringing wholeness and joy to a broken world.
By your grace renewed each day you continue the gifts of healing in your Church that your people may praise your name for ever.
By the power of your Spirit may your blessing rest on those who are anointed with this oil in your name; may they be made whole in body, mind and spirit.

Hear the prayer we offer for all your people.
Remember in your mercy those for whom we pray: heal the sick, raise the fallen, strengthen the fainthearted and enfold in your love the fearful and those who have no hope.

In the fullness of time complete your gracious work. Reconcile all things in Christ and make them new, that we may be restored in your image, renewed in your love, and serve you as sons and daughters in your kingdom.

Through your anointed Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit we lift our voices of thanks and praise:
All Blessed be God, our strength and our salvation, now and for ever. Amen.

Alternative prayers may be used (pages 308–309).

The laying on of hands is administered, using these or other suitable words

In the name of God and trusting in his might alone, receive Christ's healing touch to make you whole.

May Christ bring you wholeness of body, mind and spirit, deliver you from every evil, and give you his peace.

All Amen.

Anointing may be administered. The minister says

N, I anoint you in the name of God who gives you life. Receive Christ's forgiveness, his healing and his love.

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ grant you the riches of his grace, his wholeness and his peace.

All Amen.

After the laying on of hands and anointing, the president says

The almighty Lord, who is a strong tower for all who put their trust in him, whom all things in heaven, on earth, and under the earth obey, be now and evermore your defence.
May you believe and trust that the only name under heaven given for health and salvation is the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

All Amen.
The Sending Out

The president may say

God who said: ‘Let light shine out of darkness’

All has caused his light to shine within us
to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God

All revealed in the face of Jesus Christ.
We have this treasure in earthen vessels
to show that the power belongs to God.

A minister says

Hear the words of the Gospel according to N.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

A short passage from the Gospels is read (suggested passages are given on page 307).

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

The Peace and Dismissal

God has made us one in Christ.
He has set his seal upon us and, as a pledge of what is to come,
has given the Spirit to dwell in our hearts.
The peace of the Lord be always with you

All and also with you.

A minister says

Go in the joy and peace of Christ. [Alleluia, alleluia.]

All Thanks be to God. [Alleluia, alleluia.]

A sign of peace may be exchanged.

The ministers and people depart.

Unless the Liturgy of the Sacrament follows immediately,
the president introduces the Lord’s Prayer

In confidence let us pray to the Father for the coming of the kingdom among us:

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

(or)

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

If the Liturgy of the Sacrament follows, the president continues with the Peace (see Note 2 on page 302).

A hymn or song of thanksgiving may be sung.
5 Oil
The oil to be used at this celebration should be pure olive oil and normally be consecrated during this service by the bishop (or priest) who presides, rather than having been previously blessed. This will not only ensure an adequate supply of oil, but provide a prayer of thanksgiving at the heart of the rite. If preferred, the prayer may be used in the responsive form on pages 308–309. If oil which has previously been blessed is used, then the form of thanksgiving in the rite for Laying on of Hands with Prayer and Anointing at a Celebration of Holy Communion (Common Worship: Pastoral Services, page 33) may be used.

6 Introduction to Prayer over the Oil
Alternative versicles and responses are suggested at the beginning of the prayer over oil for anointing on page 298 (and page 308). The introductory dialogue printed first has traditionally been a distinctively episcopal text.
Supplementary Texts

Introductions

One of these may be used by the president, either at the Greeting, or to introduce the Prayers of Intercession before the Laying on of Hands and Anointing.

1 We are gathered here in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is present among us by his Spirit. He suffered for us on the cross to bring us healing and reconciliation. Having shared our weakness and learned obedience through suffering, he now lives as our great high priest and is able to save to the uttermost all who draw near to God through him. With our hope set on this great salvation we lay before God our weakness and our need.

2 Jesus sets before us the hope of the kingdom of God. All that is broken will be bound up in God’s healing love. All that is marred by weakness and sin will be transformed by God’s reconciling love.

   In his humanity, Jesus took on himself our weakness and bore our sins. The Holy Spirit is present in the struggles and groaning of a world subject to decay, bringing to birth the freedom and glory of God’s new creation. It is in this hope that we bring to God our prayers and our penitence, and look to God for the new life of the kingdom.

3 Christ taught his disciples to love one another. In his community of love, in praying together, in sharing all things and in caring for the sick, they recalled his words: ‘In so far as you did this to one of these, you did it to me.’ We gather today to witness to this teaching and to pray in the name of Jesus the healer that the sick may be restored to health and that all among us may know his saving power.

4 Our Lord Jesus Christ went about preaching the gospel and healing. He commanded his disciples to lay hands on the sick that they might be healed. Following his example, and in obedience to his command, we shall lay hands [on N], praying that the Lord will grant healing and peace according to his loving and gracious will.

   Saint James writes, ‘Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins he will be forgiven.’ In fulfilment of this we shall anoint [N] with oil, praying that the Lord will grant healing and restoration and forgiveness according to his loving and gracious will.

Prayers over the Oil

Either of these forms may be used.

A Responsive Form of Prayer over the Oil

Our help is in the name of the Lord
All who has made heaven and earth.
Blessed be the name of the Lord:
All now and for ever. Amen.
(or)
Praise God who made heaven and earth,
All who keeps his promise for ever.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God,
All who is worthy of all thanksgiving and praise.

Blessed are you, sovereign God, gentle and merciful, creator of heaven and earth.
Your Word brought light out of darkness, and daily your Spirit renews the face of the earth.
All To you be glory and praise for ever.
When we turned away from you in sin, your anointed Son took our nature and entered our suffering to bring your healing to those in weakness and distress. He broke the power of evil and set us free from sin and death that we might become partakers of his glory.
All To you be glory and praise for ever.
His apostles anointed the sick in your name, bringing wholeness and joy to a broken world.
By your grace renewed each day you continue the gifts of healing in your Church that your people may praise your name for ever.
All To you be glory and praise for ever.
All Hear us, good Lord.

A Short Form of Prayer over the Oil

Lord, holy Father, giver of health and salvation, as your apostles anointed those who were sick and healed them, so continue the ministry of healing in your Church. Sanctify this oil, that those who are anointed with it may be freed from suffering and distress, find inward peace, and know the joy of your salvation, through your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.
All Amen.
