copyright

WORKS IN ELECTRONIC FORM

Make sure your copying is legal!

You may download or print for the purposes of PRIVATE STUDY or RESEARCH for a NON-COMMERCIAL PURPOSE without asking permission from the copyright holder.

Please note

- When copying from web pages, respect web copyright notices and any copyright statements attached to works.
- Unless explicit permission to copy more is given on the website, only single copies may be downloaded and printed.
- Unless explicit permission is given on the website, copying for research for a commercial purpose is prohibited.
- Using material from a subscription database should be governed by contractual conditions.*
- Unless it is impracticable, all copies must be acknowledged.

* Consult a member of the library staff for information.

Infringing copyright is against the law.

It is your responsibility to keep within copyright law!